

– 1 Cor 13.1-3 –
Love Sermon 10
Love, the Measure of All Things

1 Cor 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

- * Paul's meditation on love comes in the middle of what?

- * What was the Corinthians' real problem?

- * Paul tells the Corinthians to stop lusting after what?

- * What should be desired and pursued above all gifts?

- * In our text, Paul gives three dreams of what?

- * What is the first dream?

- * What happens without love?

- * What is the second dream?

- * What happens without love?

- * What is the third dream?

- * What happens without love?

- * With these three dreams, what is the difference with love and without?

* Love is not only _____,
it is the _____.

* What is the chief end of a fruit tree? Using that analogy, what role does love play? What about gifts and services?

* If love is the _____, it is also the _____.

* What kind of tree did Jesus curse?

* When we have no love, what are we like?

* What is a scary thought that we need to face?

* Where should our emphasis be?