

I Am Not Ashamed of the Gospel

Romans 1.14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise and to unwise. 15 So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also. 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "The just shall live by faith."

* When it comes to God, everyone has an opinion ...

* What are these opinions, really?

* What is the world the gospel comes into?

* It is not a matter of who is judging, but who is judging ...

* What is the reception Jesus received and the gospel receives? How do Satan and fallen men respond?

* How does this explain Paul's puzzling and apparently contradictory statements?

* Why is Paul unashamed of the gospel?

* Why is Paul not ashamed of the gospel?
