

– 1Cor 13.4 –
Fourth Sunday Sermons
Love and Patience

1Cor 13.4 Love is patient ...

- * What builds us and the church up?
 - * What authenticates the church, and how?
 - * What was the missing element in Corinth, and how did its absence show up?
 - * Why did Paul write 1Cor 13, and what role does it play in the letter?
 - * What is love's first quality, and why is it significant?
 - * What are two misconceptions we have about patience?
 - 1)
 - 2)
 - * When did God first show patience, and how?
 - * What are some things that would take a lot of time even had there been no Fall?
 - * Patience is that quality of God that –
 - 1)
 - 2)
- * Patience is integral to God's ...
 - * How do we need to emulate God?
 - * How are our instinctive reactions unlike God?
 - * Patience is not fundamentally a ..., but a
 - * Patience is integral to ..., both God's and ours.
 - * What is our strength?
 - * What else is patience integral to, and how?
 - * There is a sense in which God is happier with our ... than we are. How can this be?
 - * If God decides to do a great work among us, one of the first things we will see is ...