

– 1 Corinthians 13.6 –

Love Sermon 8

Love Rejoices Not in Unrighteousness but in the Truth

1Cor 13.6 Love ... does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth.

* What do the following mean?

- “Rejoices”

- “Does not rejoice”

- “Righteousness”

- “Truth”

* Looking at the broader context in 1 Corinthians:

- How does this relate to Paul’s earlier statement that “love builds up”?

- What were the relational sins the Corinthians were guilty of?

* At bottom, we have a life built on ...

* If we have a life built on self, we will ...

* If we are preoccupied with self, we will ...

* If we measure ourselves in terms of esteem and approval and acceptance from others, we will ...

* If we seek to control how people feel about us, it will ...

* If we have rivalry and in-groups, we will ...

* The only alternative is ..., and our best example is ...

* If we follow Jesus, we will ...

* When we do that, everything else becomes ...

* That frees us to ...

•

•

•

* This is being ...

* The final question is ...