

— 1Chronicles 12.32 —
Contemporary Issues 2017
Getting a Biblical Frame of Reference

1 Chronicles 12.32 The sons of Issachar ... understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do

* Our practice at the first of each year is to ...

* The biggest contemporary issue on everyone's mind right now is ... To understand that we need to understand ... And to do that we need to have a ...

* What is the biblical warrant for considering these things in a sermon during worship?

* What does "understanding the times" entail?

* Everyone in history is for ... and against ...

* What two forms of governmental tyranny does God show us in the Bible, where do we find them, and what are their characteristics?

(1)

(2)

* What can we conclude from this?

(1)

(2)

* What fundamental principles of liberty and government do we see when God establishes Israel?

(1)

(2)

(3)

(4)

(5)

* What should this biblical perspective shape in our lives?

* What did Augustine believe defined a people?

* What should we be driven by?