

— 1 Cor 14.20 —
Kingdom, Conversion, Witness, Wisdom 4
Wisdom

1 Cor 14.20 Brethren, do not be children in your thinking; yet in evil be infants, but in your thinking be mature.

* In this sermon, I want to call ...

* Let me give one prominent and recurring example ...

* What's missing is biblical ...

* In the Bible, wisdom simply means ...

* Biblical wisdom is not ...

* Paul says in our text that we should be ...

* Jesus makes the same point when he says ... (Mat 10.16)

* If we are sophisticated in evil and understanding, we will ...

* If we are simple in evil and understanding, we will ...

* To do good, we must be ...

* Truth 1: God does his kingdom work in a ..., and so must ...

* How do we see this illustrated in Daniel?

* Truth 2: More than one thing can be ...

* You can have a ... who does something ... (Darius)

* You can also have a ... who does something ... (David)

* You can have a ... on the ... (Abner)

* You can also have an ... on the ... (Joab)

* You can have a ruler who is ... who nevertheless ... (Jehu)

* If we lived back then and were simplistic, we would ...

* If we lived back then and were biblically mature, we would ...

* In short, we would ... And we would ...